

METROPOLITAN CARDIOLOGY & UROLOGY CLINIC

Multi-Specialty Outpatient Division | License #MED-441209

Patient Name: Arthur Pendelton	Patient ID: P103
Age / Gender: 61 / Male	Date: October 9, 2026
Diagnosis: Exertional Angina, Erectile Dysfunction	Attending: Dr. Sarah Lin, MD

Clinical Examination Notes

Patient presents for dual consultation addressing episodic exertional chest tightness attributed to stable chronic angina, alongside quality of life urological follow-up. ECG shows sinus rhythm with baseline non-specific ST changes. Vital signs stable.

Prescription Directives (Dual Orders)

Rx Item 1:	Nitroglycerin 0.4 mg sublingual tablets Directions: Take 1 tablet under the tongue every 5 minutes as needed for acute chest pain / angina pectoris.
Rx Item 2:	Sildenafil 50 mg oral film-coated tablet Directions: Take 1 tablet orally approximately 60 minutes prior to anticipated activity for symptomatic management.

Physician Signature: Dr. Sarah Lin, MD (Cardiovascular & Internal Medicine)